Sample Questions Card Set

| | |
|---|---|
| What do you mean by _____? | What things do you notice or wonder about the statements? |
| Is there anything else that you notice? | Can someone else comment on what she's saying? |
| Explain what _____ means. | How do you know that _____will always be true? |
| When you write an equation, what do the variables tell you? | What does your equation have to do with the problem? |
| What is the formula for finding the _____? | How does that representation relate to _____? |
| As you represented the problem, how did you choose to organize your information? | How might you prove that ____ is the solution? |
| Can you show and explain more about how you used _____ to find the answer to the task? | |