Early Childhood Ancillary Certificate (ECAC) Background Information

1. What is the ECAC?

The ECAC is a professional credential for teachers that are working in early learning centers. This certificate is part of the broader effort to unify the early childhood system and professionalize the early learning teacher workforce.

This certificate will enable early learning center teachers to be recognized for the professional training and education they have completed, as well as provide access to valuable resources such as the School Readiness Tax Credits. The ECAC can be earned by demonstrating completion of one of the qualifying credentials or degrees and by submitting a complete application to the Louisiana Department of Education (LDE).

2. What are the advantages of applying for an ECAC?

An ECAC has several advantages for teachers working in Type III publicly-funded centers:

- It enables teachers to continue or begin working as lead teachers following the July 2019 requirement.
- It allows teachers who are eligible to earn School Readiness Tax Credits (SRTC) to reach the highest levels of teacher tax credit (level 3 and level 4) after demonstrating a commitment to the field through prior earning of the SRTC.
- Teachers who have earned the ECAC through a CDA are not required to renew their CDA credential with the Council for Professional Recognition in order to maintain their Ancillary Certificate. Maintaining a current CDA is optional once the ECAC has been earned.

3. Who needs to have an ECAC?

Beginning on July 1, 2019, all lead teachers in publicly-funded centers (Type III) will be required to have or be earning an ECAC as a minimum credential. In addition, as of October 2018, Director/Director Designee may use the Ancillary Certificate as a pathway for director qualifications (refer to Bulletin 137).

Teachers will have 24 months from their start date as a lead teacher to earn the ECAC. Here are a few examples:

Example Start Date as Lead Teacher		As of July 1, 2019	Must Have an Ancillary Certificate No Later Than:
Began prior to EC Ancillary Certificate Requirement	January 1, 2001	Must have Ancillary Certificate	July 1, 2019
	March 1, 2017	Must have Ancillary Certificate	July 1, 2019
Began during the phase in of EC Ancillary Certificate Requirement	December 1, 2018	Must be in the process of earning Ancillary Certificate	December 1, 2020 (within 24 months of start date)
Began after EC Ancillary Certificate Requirement	August 1, 2019		August 1, 2021(within 24 months of start date)

4. How will the Department verify that teachers have earned the ECAC?

Beginning in July 2019, Type III early learning center directors will be asked to assure that all of the lead teachers working in a center have:

- earned an ECAC or traditional early childhood teacher certification (PK-3 or Birth-Kindergarten); or
- are in the process of completing training that will lead to an ECAC within 24 months of their start date as lead teacher.

Directors of Type III centers will be asked to assure this in the annual Academic Approval process.

5. How much does the ECAC cost?

There will be no certification processing fee for individuals that are applying for or renewing the ECAC.

6. Will the ECAC qualify me to work in public schools?

The ECAC will not qualify an individual to work as a lead teacher in public schools.

- The bachelor’s degree and teaching certificate requirement for pre-K teachers in public and non-public schools will remain the same.
- Head Start teacher requirements will continue to follow the national credential and qualification guidelines.
