

Jump Start Micro-Enterprise Credential: Available Teaching Resources

(Updated: August 2016)

David Wilburn of Woodlawn High (Baton Rouge) was one of the original Micro-Enterprise Credential pilot program teachers. The resources he has listed below can help students master key Micro-Enterprise Credential concepts.

| Available Micro-Enterprise Credential Teaching Resources | | |
|--|--|---|
| | Resources | Links |
| Most Helpful Resources | 1) Nepris Teacher Training – please contact Nepris for free teacher training. This training is online. If you’d like to have in-person help for Nepris teacher training, please contact the Louisiana Council on Economic Education (LCEE). | Christina Carrion at Nepris: Chris@Nepris.com Laura Smith at LCEE: lcee247@yahoo.com |
| | 2) Nepris Champion Grants – the LDOE will announce Nepris Champion Grants. These grants will provide teachers at select high schools with a stipend to become Nepris experts and train other teachers (including at least one academic subject teacher) how to use Nepris. | Information about Nepris Champion Grants will be posted on the All Things Jump Start web portal in September. |
| | 3) EverFi – EverFi Financial Literacy online course materials are available free to Louisiana schools. There is a new state law requiring teaching financial literacy materials in middle and high schools – these materials address that new legislative requirement. (EverFi Venture Program materials are also available to Louisiana teachers.) | www.Everfi.com/FinLit |
| | 4) Jump$tart – Jump$tart (a non-profit organization separate from the Department of Education provides a variety of materials to Louisiana teachers and offers annual “boot camp” training opportunity (this year: October 13, 2016). | http://clearinghouse.jumpstart.org |
| | 5) Louisiana Council for Economic Education – LCEE provides a range of helpful resources. See Resource 09-03 (available soon) for a list of free videos related to specific Micro-Enterprise Credential topics | Resource 09-03 will be available soon |
| Other Helpful Resources | 6) Wall Street Journal – schools can request copies of the Wall Street Journal for in-class use. | http://www.wsjuniversity.com/students/ |
| | 7) H&R Block Budget Challenge – online budget simulation scholarships are available. | http://hrblock.budgetchallenge.com/ |
| | 8) Junior Achievement – many JA topics align with Micro-Enterprise Credential content. There are multiple JA chapters in Louisiana. Junior Achievement volunteers must present these materials. | http://www.juniorachievement.org/web/ja-gno/ http://www.jabatonrouge.com/ http://northlouisiana.ja.org/ |
| | 9) Small Business Administration – free online business plan templates and other resources helpful to start-ups are available | https://www.sba.gov/ |
| | 10) Federal Reserve – building wealth publications available | https://www.federalreserveeducation.org/ |
| | 11) Chad Foster – “Financial Literacy for Teens” (not free) | http://chadfoster.com/flft-home.html |
| | 12) Shark Tank – episodes of this reality show are available on YouTube | www.YouTube.com |
| | 13) Regions Bank – various education materials available for free | https://www.regions.com/Insights/Personal |

Please effective instructional resources you to develop to JumpStart@la.gov

Subject Line: Micro-Enterprise Credential New Resource