Trauma in the Classroom: Minimizing Disruptions to Learning

Monday, January 11, 2016 | 1:00 PM - 2:30 PM Central

Time Register: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/1968021730417207042>

Description: In this webinar, NCHE staff will discuss the traumatic impact of homelessness on students and schools. While the content does provide an overview of trauma, it will also provide specific examples and strategies that can be used to shape interactions with students, parents, and even coworkers who have been exposed to trauma. Specifically, the topics explored will include:

- The definition of trauma and complex trauma;
- Who is impacted by trauma and how, including information on signs of exposure and triggers that can cause a "fight, flight, freeze" response;
- Trauma-informed organizations and strategies for schools; and
- Secondary trauma

NCHE Coffee Break: Understanding Doubled-Up

Tuesday, March 8, 2016 | 1:00 PM - 1:45 PM Central

Time Register: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/2330596686184772354>

Description: In this 45-minute coffee break, participants will join presenters from the National Center for Homeless Education (NCHE) in an exploration of the issue of doubling-up. Doubled-up is the informal wording used to describe a concept included in the McKinney-Vento Act's definition of homeless. It refers to shared living arrangements, some of which may be considered homeless, while others may not be, depending on various factors. In this session, designed to provide professional development in a convenient and interactive online format, participants will explore some of these factors in greater detail and have the opportunity to ask questions about concepts covered throughout the session.
