

Access to Social Studies Distance Learning Packets, Teacher Materials

NOTICE (July 2020): The teacher materials section of the distance learning packets, including the answer keys, have been separated from the student materials and password protected to better ensure authentic student responses by securing the packet answer keys. Both the student materials and teacher materials for all distance learning packets are posted on the K-12 Social Studies Resources page.

To access the teacher materials for the social studies distance learning packets, select a document to download, and enter the password key below to open the Word document.
