Scoring Notes:

- Colonists were upset as they felt they were being unfairly treated by Britain through taxes in which they had no say. The new nation’s government created was based on popular sovereignty.
- Boston Tea Party served as an example of the right of the people to protest. The right of free speech and to protest became a part of the first amendment in the Bill of Rights.
- The Declaration on Independence stated why they wanted to be free from Britain. The Declaration of Independence stated that all men are equal, and everyone has the right to life, liberty, and happiness.
- Accept any other reasonable answers.
