

EARLY CHILDHOOD NETWORK PERFORMANCE PROFILE KEY

Measures of Classroom Quality reflects all of the classroom observations done throughout the year within the community. Equitable Access shows how many of the community's at-risk four-year-old children the network serves. The scale for both ratings has five levels: Unsatisfactory, Approaching Proficient, Proficient, High Proficient, and Excellent.

EMOTIONAL SUPPORT measures the responsiveness and sensitivity of the classroom to children's emotions, which helps develop their ability to interact with others.

CLASSROOM ORGANIZATION measures how a classroom is organized to manage children's attention, time, and behavior.

INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT measures how classroom interactions and experiences help children develop language and learn new concepts.

ASSESSMENT shows if teachers within the community are evaluating children's growth and development.

CURRICULUM QUALITY Shows the percent of sites in the community that use activities and materials to promote children's development and learning.

BIRTH TO 3 ACCESS shows how many of the community's at-risk birth to 3 year olds, the network serves with public funding.
