

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Please answer the following questions. Be sure to pay attention to whether or not a question asks you to choose multiple options.

1. Which of the following Automotive certifications can be attained through Jump Start pathways? (Circle all that apply.)
 - A) Automotive Service
 - B) Dental Assistant
 - C) Industrial Maintenance Mechanic
 - D) Collision Repair
2. When a vehicle first arrives to a mechanic, which of the following 21st Century skills do you think he/she uses to diagnose the problem:
 - A) Collaboration and Teamwork
 - B) Creativity and Imagination
 - C) Critical Thinking
 - D) Problem Solving
3. Which of the following is the strongest example of an Automotive sector career ladder?
 - A) Diesel Technician Assistant – General Diesel Technician – Lead Diesel Technician – Shop Floor Leader
 - B) Intern – Cost Estimator – Cost Engineer – Superintendent
 - C) Prep Cook – Sous Chef – Chef de Cuisine – Executive Chef
 - D) Emergency Medical Technician – Paramedic – Registered Nurse – Nurse Practitioner
4. Which of the following elements are good qualities to have when considering a career in automotive? (Circle all that apply.)
 - A) You enjoy working with your hands.
 - B) You do not enjoy getting your hands or clothes dirty.
 - C) You have the willpower to work until the job is complete, even if that means long hours.
 - D) You do not enjoy problem solving.
5. There are two types of Automotive certifications offered through the Louisiana Jump Start pathway. What does the acronym ASE in ASE Manufacturer Certification stand for?
 - A) Anticipating Service Errors
 - B) Automotive Station Engineers
 - C) Articulating Strong Engines
 - D) Automotive Service Excellence