

Virtual Workplace Experience II
08-05 Construction Crafts and HVAC Pre-Test/Post-Test

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Please answer the following questions. Be sure to pay attention to whether or not a question asks you to choose multiple options.

1. Which of the following areas of work are most often covered by the Construction Crafts and HVAC sector? (Choose two.)
  - A) Buildings
  - B) Infrastructure
  - C) Automobiles
  - D) Landscaping

2. Which of the following Construction Crafts and HVAC certifications are offered through Jump Start pathways? (Circle all that apply.)
  - A) Carpentry
  - B) Electrical
  - C) Welding
  - D) Industrial Maintenance Mechanic

3. Construction might be a good fit for you because (choose all that apply):
  - A) There are LOTS of jobs available
  - B) They pay is higher than most middle skill jobs
  - C) There are many options to progress up the career ladder
  - D) You do not enjoy working with your hands

4. Which of the following is the strongest example of a Construction and HVAC sector career ladder?
  - A) Prep Cook – Sous Chef – Chef de Cuisine – Executive Chef
  - B) Helper – CNC Operator – Machinist – Industrial Machinery Mechanic
  - C) Human Resource Assistant – Labor Relations Specialist – Human Resource Specialist – Human Resource Manager
  - D) Apprentice – Carpenter – First-Line Supervisor – Construction Manager

5. If you worked in the Construction and HVAC sector and noticed that a colleague isn't properly completing her work, and instead notice she continues to cut corners to get the job done faster. The most appropriate first step might be:
  - A) Avoid the issue altogether.
  - B) Yell loudly at your coworker so others can hear you to bring attention to the issue.
  - C) Ask to speak with her, express your concerns, and show her how the task needs to be fully completed.
  - D) Insist that she quit their job and leave the work site immediately.