INDIVIDUAL GRADUATION PLAN

Individual Graduation Planning

The Individual Graduation Plan (IGP) prepares students for success in high school and beyond. The IGP is designed to help middle and high school counselors support students and parents as they navigate high school. The planning process includes

- exploring career opportunities
- selecting and listing required courses
- aligning coursework to personal and academic interests
- selecting a graduation pathway
- applying for scholarships and financial aid

Rewards
