Submission Steps

Step 1: Determine Eligibility

To be eligible for the Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide, partners:

1. Must offer professional learning that directly and explicitly connects to the implementation of HQIM, and
2. Must assure one of the following:
 - a. The submitting partner/organization is the original author of the HQIM for which they are offering training;
 - b. The submitting partner/organization has secured (and will submit) permission from the original author/partner; or
 - c. The HQIM is an open educational resource (OER)¹ and, therefore, permission is not required.

What if the PL you want to offer districts does not directly and explicitly connect to the implementation of HQIM?

If the professional learning you are offering does not directly and explicitly connect to the implementation of HQIM, then the Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide is not the appropriate venue and review of those services would not be handled through this office.

Districts are free to purchase other professional learning using district funds in accordance with their local procurement policies. Partners can check the Office of State Procurement website periodically for education and training open bid opportunities that are advertised not only through the Department of Education but also through all other state agencies.

¹ Open educational resources (OER): Learning materials that are available under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license that allows them to be: reused, revised, remixed, and redistributed. See www.oercommons.org.

State Review

After submitting, you will receive email notifications from our office at each phase of review (initial screening, state review, and publication).

Submission Phase I: Initial Prescreening

Submissions will be screened to confirm eligibility and ensure all required documentation is included.

Submission Phase II: Professional Learning Review by State Content Specialist

Submissions are reviewed by a Content Team and the Diverse Learner team (if applicable), and feedback is given to the partner with an opportunity to make adjustments if needed.

Submission Phase III: Publication

The partner is notified when the submission is approved. Upon approval, the partner will either receive an invitation to create their partner profile or will be notified that their new approval will be added to their Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide profile.

Opportunity is given for dialogue and feedback with the partner having the option to make adjustments to the entry and/or sample training materials or withdraw the submission from the review process.

Professional Learning Efficacy Indicators

The LDOE has added the Professional Learning Efficacy Indicators to the Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide evaluation process in order to inform systems about the effectiveness of our professional learning partners who are featured in our Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide. The Professional Learning Efficacy Indicators are a framework emphasizing key elements that impact the value of educators' learning experiences.

The incorporation of these indicators into the professional learning partner guide evaluation process is intended to convey valuable information about professional learning providers. The data gleaned from these indicators will be made public and will signal to educators and stakeholders the quality and effectiveness of our professional learning providers.

This process will be twofold. The first part of the process requires PL Partners to submit participant feedback collected from participant surveys (Document 9 of Step 2). Only one submission per partner, per content area and per curricula will be considered. Professional learning partners should submit evidence of overall participant feedback from the previous year (January 2023-December 2023) of professional learning. This evidence should be quantitative but can include some qualitative feedback. Roll-up data from the surveys collected at the end of each professional learning session is ideal. For the second part of the process, the LDOE will collect feedback from systems regarding their experience using the professional learning services of each partner.

Revisions to Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide Profile

Partners may request revisions or corrections to their profile at any time after publication. These requests are considered and handled on a case-by-case basis throughout the year.

To request revisions or corrections, partners must complete two steps:

1. Send a request for changes to the LDOE team by using the smartsheets form. The LDOE team will review the requested changes. You will receive a notification of approval or a request for additional information.
2. After receiving an approval email, the partner can log in to the Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide site and make the desired changes.

Once both steps are complete, the LDOE's team will review the changes and approve them in the Instructional Materials Professional Learning Partner Guide platform or send a request for additional information or revisions.
