

Louisiana State Superintendent Dr. Cade Brumley developed a 100 day entry plan that will allow him to lead and learn during his critical first months as head of the Department. The strategic plan is called 100 Days for a Strong Start. It's outlined by seven key priorities: ensure a Strong Start to the 2020-2021 school year; advocate during the legislative special session; cultivate a strong and diverse team; provide clear, strong and regular communication; listen to stakeholders; review data and recommendations; and develop a deeper knowledge of the Department.

Each week during his first 100 days, the Department will share an update on his progress.

Dr. Brumley's Weekly Progress Update: July 10

Priority 1: Ensure a Strong Start to the 2020-2021 school year

- Collaborated with leadership of Louisiana Department of Health on school reopening guidance
- Met with leadership of various systems concerning Strong Start 2020 reopening guidance
- Met with leadership of LHSAA concerning student-athlete safety
- Attended virtual Region 2 superintendents call concerning Strong Start 2020 reopening guidance

Priority 3: Cultivate a strong and diverse team

- Participated in conference call with LDOE network teams

Priority 4: Provide clear, strong and regular communications

- Conducted an interview with KZBL & KDBH radio
- Conducted an interview with The Associated Press
- Conducted an interview with The Advocate

Priority 5: Listen to stakeholders

- Met with Commissioner of Higher Education Dr. Kim Hunter Reed to discuss shared priorities between PK-12 and higher education
- Conducted listening session with various charter school leaders
- Participated in Governor's Unified Command call
- Conducted listening session with leadership and board of Associated Professional Educators of Louisiana (A+PEL)
- Met with leadership of Homeschool Louisiana
- Met with leadership of Louisiana Federation of Teachers