

CHARTER SCHOOLS

March 25, 2020

Superintendent's Message

Dear Colleagues,

On Monday evening, I had the privilege of participating in a roundtable discussion at Louisiana Public Broadcasting (LPB) centered on how the state is responding to the evolving Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic. During the education-focused segment of the live broadcast, which you can now view online, I answered questions alongside Gov. John Bel Edwards, Commissioner of Higher Education Dr. Kim Hunter Reed, and LPB Deputy Director Christina Melton. They offered valuable information and perspective.

Among the questions posed to the panel, we were asked how Louisiana is supporting distance learning efforts, including for children who do not have Internet access.

The Louisiana Department of Education is committed to supporting all distance learning efforts to minimize students' learning loss. The Department has identified ways students and families can access free or reduced-cost Internet packages and WiFi hotspots, as well as ways schools can ensure tracking on devices provided directly to students. That information can be found in our K-12 FAQ, which is continually updated.

The Department has also been researching Louisiana school systems with strong plans to provide access to learning, collaborating with experts across the nation in order to provide school systems and educators with ideas and tools, and working closely with curriculum publishers to ensure access to key materials.

This week, the Department has posted and will continue to add to resources including:

- Sample models of distance education, including models that require limited or no technology;
- Tools for teachers and students, such as sample schedules and communication systems, and guidance on how to utilize these tools;
- An inventory of curricular materials that are available for distance learning formats; and
- A dedicated Course Choice catalog that will offer expanded high school credit course opportunities through June 30.

We hope these resources, which will be shared directly and posted to our website, prove valuable as you navigate this uncertain time.

In service,

Beth Scioneaux
Acting State Superintendent

Finance

New: Maintenance of Effort (MOE) Fiscal Requirements

Please share with business managers and financial officials.

Meeting yearly Maintenance of Effort (MOE) requirements are a part of the business process to confirm compliance and determine eligibility of federal grant funds for ESSA and IDEA grants. The U.S. Department of Education (ED) requires an annual review that determines if each school system:

1. has not decreased spending of general fund dollars, and
2. is budgeting expenditures to meet the MOE standards.

There are three MOE measurements submitted in the eGMS system:

- 2019 IDEA MOE Confirmation (Compliance) deadline for submission is April 30.
- 2021 ESSA MOE Verification updates are in progress and will be available in the near future.
- 2021 IDEA MOE Verification (Eligibility) updates are in progress and will be available in the near future.

Please note: The Department has enhanced the MOE system to include a technical assistance feature that shows if the school system has not met the MOE requirement for IDEA. School systems are encouraged to start early and work through the new technical assistance feature found at the consistency check.

The MOE Quick Reference Guide is available to assist with the new feature and submitting all three MOE applications.

Please contact nakia.jason@la.gov regarding noticed delays with MOE that are COVID-19 related or with questions regarding the MOE review process. For technical inquiries or support, please contact jason.berard@la.gov.
