

CHARTER SCHOOLS

June 10, 2020

Superintendent's Message

Dear Colleagues,

As a Louisiana native, I'm humbled to be your new State Superintendent. I'm thankful for the work led by John White during his nine years in this office. I hope my tenure will be equally productive. I've wanted to be a school leader since first grade, so I'm very excited - and that's an understatement. I appreciate BESE appointing me to this role, the Senate unanimously confirming me, and the thousands of stakeholders I've worked with throughout my career. I'm not Superman, but I'll work super hard.

The task ahead is monumental - not just for me, but for all of us. Students deserve an outstanding education no matter what. A quality education is life-transforming. It impacts families and communities. Despite the many challenges we're facing in America, now is not the time to retreat on student outcomes and opportunities. We must all do our part to help students learn, thrive, and grow - that means me and you.

We're at a pressure point in American public education. The health pandemic has illuminated the vital role schools play in a successful community. At a base level, we're childcare. Beyond that, we're everything a child could ever need to be successful in life. We've always known the extra mile our educators go to step into the gaps, but that fact is more evident than ever. While our school buildings were closed, you provided meals, mental health support, home learning resources, phone calls, emails, waves, and smiles. Thank you!

We're full speed ahead to ensure a Strong Start to the school year. Our kids deserve nothing less. In addition to Strong Start resources currently available on our website, we're working on a plan that provides guidelines, as well as supportive guidance for reopening. We will have this information available soon. We will not provide a blanket, one-size-fits-all plan of how schools should reopen and operate. Instead, our guidelines and supportive guidance will frame local decision-making given the nuances of settings across our state.

Other than a global health pandemic, our nation is also hurting and grappling with issues of social injustice. This is not a new concern, but it does deserve a renewed commitment of action. An effective educational system doesn't simply sustain our democracy; instead, it improves it. And now, clearly, is a time where democracy must be improved. I've always strived to work with an equity agenda, pushing additional resources and attention to students and communities that needed it most. I've gathered feedback from multiple perspectives and have always built diverse, inclusive teams. Regardless of beliefs, identity, address, skin color, citizenship, ability, gender, or income, all students can achieve high expectations - and we should set those.

I recognize the impacts systemic racism has on our Black students, families, and employees. We stand with our Black community and against racism of any kind. Whether it's implicit or explicit, conscious or subconscious - racism is wrong. As educators, we must be part of the solution. I will seek opportunities to create a more just educational system. Students don't care how much you know, until they know how much you care. It matters that our Black students know we see them, we love them, and we are here to help them move forward. I look forward to being part of the discussion and solution for a fairer, more equitable, and just Louisiana - one I can tell my grandkids I helped create.

Dr. Cade Brumley
State Superintendent of Education

State law requires any business hiring a minor to obtain an employment certificate. These employment certificates are to be issued by either:

- The Parish or city public school superintendent or by his designated representative
- The principal of a public or private school or by her designated representative

To fill the gap at the beginning of the COVID-19 crisis, LWC began issuing blanket work permits for minors throughout the entire state. However, these temporary certificates are good for only 60 days and have since expired. Because of this, school systems are urged to immediately begin reissuing work permits.

Please review the following statutes under Title 23:

- §182. Employers to keep record
- §188. Records kept by issuing authority
- §183. Persons authorized to issue
- §192. Certificate as evidence of age of minors
- §187. Signing of certificate by minor; return by employer after termination of employment

Please contact dlarocca@lwc.la.gov with questions.
