ORDER

This matter came on for hearing the 30th day of March, 2012. After considering the law and the evidence, and for the reasons orally assigned, the Court is of the opinion that the Department of Children and Family Services is entitled to the relief sought. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that a preliminary injunction issue, without bond, directed to defendant Teka Keller, together with her officers, directors, agents, employees, representatives, and all others acting at her direction or on her behalf, authorizing the Department to order the immediate removal of all children in care at the facility and return them to the custody of their parents or other guardians during the pendency of these proceedings;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant, her officers, directors, agents, employees, representatives, and all others acting at her direction or on her behalf, are hereby enjoined, restrained and prohibited from accepting any other children in care during the pendency of these proceedings.

Shreveport, Louisiana this 30 day of March, 2012.
