

Name: _____

First Grade Writing Task: Whales

Prompt: After reading and listening to the story Whales, write a paragraph (at least 3-4 sentences) that explains how whales use their body parts. Include at least two details from the text to support your response.

Whales are the biggest animals on the planet. Whales use their body for breathing air out of their hole. Whales give birth to their babies.